

Contract Support Group Facilitator (Licensed Clinician)

Gilda's Club Middle Tennessee is seeking fully licensed clinicians to serve as contract Support Group Facilitators for several cancer support group opportunities across Middle Tennessee.

About Gilda's Club Middle Tennessee

Gilda's Club Middle Tennessee provides free emotional and social support for people impacted by cancer—including those diagnosed, caregivers, family members, and friends—through professionally facilitated support groups and related programming.

Position Overview

This contract role involves facilitating in-person cancer support groups in designated communities. Facilitators create a safe, supportive, and therapeutic environment for participants coping with the emotional and psychosocial impact of cancer.

Current Opportunities

We are currently hiring licensed clinicians for the following potential support group locations:

In-person Cancer Support Groups

- Tullahoma, TN
- Dickson, TN
- Cookeville, TN
- Nashville, TN (Men's Group)

In-person Spanish-Language Cancer Support Group

- Nashville, TN
- Must be fluent in Spanish and preferably have working knowledge of medical/oncology terminology

Required Qualifications

- Active, unrestricted licensure in the state of Tennessee as one of the following:
 - LCSW

- LPC
- LMFT
- Ability to facilitate supportive, clinically appropriate group discussions
- Strong interpersonal, communication, and group facilitation skills
- Availability to lead in-person groups as scheduled

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience working in medical, oncology, hospice, palliative care, or related healthcare settings
- Prior experience facilitating support groups
- Cultural competence and experience serving diverse populations

Position Details

- Contract-based opportunities
- In-person facilitation
- Group schedules vary by location and program needs

How to Apply

Interested clinicians are encouraged to submit their résumé and a brief statement of interest outlining relevant experience and preferred location(s) to Kristen Maloney at kristen@gildasclubmiddletn.org